New in our Children’s Library:

Baby Wren and the Great Gift by Sally Lloyd-Jones - In the narrow crevice of a giant rock face in a great wide canyon, a baby inside her tiny nest peeped out and the world was filled with such wonderfulness. Sunfish swimming, eagles soaring, kingfishers diving! “What can I do that’s wonderful?” the baby wren wonders. As she takes in the beauty of the canyon home, the tiny wren discovers what was waiting inside her all along - her own beautiful gift.

LISTENING POST

On Wednesday evening, November 15 at 7 pm, the pastor will conduct the second in a series of listening posts at First. We will have an abbreviated order for evening prayer with the listening post following prayer. The listening post will again be a town-hall style meeting with the opportunity to share concerns, ask questions and talk about your life in the Church. During the listening post, we will focus our conversation around the question: what have we learned about ourselves in the past five months? Please mark your calendar and plan to join us for prayer and conversation.

November Library News

First Lutheran library is located on the second floor of the Education building. New materials are added each month for the Christian education and reading enjoyment of all church members and their families.

New in our library this month:

Resilient Reformer, the Life and Thought of Martin Luther, by Timothy F. Lull and Derek R. Nelson – In this telling, Luther is an energetic, resilient actor, driven by very human strengths and failings, always wishing to do right by his understanding of God and the witness of the Scriptures. At times humorous, always realistic and appropriately critical when necessary, Lull and Nelson tell the story of an amazing, unforgettable life.

40 Day Journey with Martin Luther, Gracia M. Grindal, editor - This book in your hands is an invitation to explore your own spirituality under the guidance of one of the most powerful Christian voices of the last millennium, Martin Luther, paramount leader of the Protestant Reformation in the sixteenth century. This book is an invitation to spend forty days with Luther on a journey that will give you much to think about, much to pray about, and much to do on the road to radical discipleship.

Martin Luther's 95 Theses, with introduction, commentary, and study guide by Timothy J. Wengert - Timothy J. Wengert, one of the best-known interpreters of Luther and Lutheranism active today, sets his newly translated Ninety-Five Theses in its historical context with a detailed introduction and illuminating study notes. To help the reader understand the context and the import of the Ninety-Five Theses, Wengert provides two related essential documents: Luther's Letter to Archbishop Albrecht of Mainz (to which he appended a copy of the Ninety Five Theses) and Luther's 1518 Sermon on Indulgences and Grace (written to inform the German-speaking public of his view of indulgences).

GREENSBURG HOLIDAY PARADE—NOVEMBER 18

Our youth will once again be serving hot dogs and our Evangelism team will be serving hot chocolate at the Holiday Parade on Saturday, November 18.

This is a great opportunity to show Christian welcome and kindness to those in our community. If you are in elementary school, middle school, or high school jump on this opportunity to live out your faith. Likewise, all members of the church are Evangelists, so come and share the warmth of the Gospel as we serve the hot chocolate. Everyone needs to meet at 10:00 AM in the Fellowship Hall to get things ready.

GIVING TREE “ANGELS” AVAILABLE SUNDAY, NOV. 19

Our “Giving Tree” will have angels starting Sunday, November 19. The angels contain names of needy children and gift suggestions. (You do NOT need to purchase all of the suggestions.) Some of these children are from families helped through our food pantry. Some are from our preschool.

If you wish to help, take an angel and please sign your name and phone number next to the child’s number on the clipboard provided. Gifts should be wrapped and placed under the tree or returned to the church office no later than Sunday, December 10. The gifts will be distributed at the December 16 Food Pantry.

Now another question was how can they learn if they can’t read? Martin Luther realized that education was the answer. Martin didn’t stop with the education of boys, which would have been accepted well enough in his day and age. No, he strongly believed that every human being should learn to read, including girls and women. Universal education didn’t really begin until the early part of the 20th Century. Luther was a man ahead of his time.

Luther did another very unexpected thing that put him ahead of his time. He left his estate to his wife Katherina. In Saxony, the inheritance law for widows was a coat to wear, a stool to sit on and a cane to help you walk. Martin Luther left his entire estate to his wife Katherina. She had begun to manage their earthly possessions when they were married and she not only managed, she excelled in the management of his household and his possessions. Who else cared about his family enough to take excellent care of them?

After Luther died, this little eccentricity created a whole new controversy. For a while Katie indeed was left with what Saxon law dictated. She knew that Martin had left her the whole estate and since she’d been managing and taking care of said estate for all of their married life, she appealed to her brother, Hans, who was a lawyer, to see if he could get Martin’s will enforced. It took the better part of a year, but Elector John, heir to Duke Frederick the Wise, finally decreed that Martin Luther’s will should be followed.

Martin Luther had a clear intelligence, an open and honest mind and common sense enough to implement the conclusions that he was led to by his thinking. He was a man whose thinking was clearly ahead of his time.

Reformation Reflections

A question! Did your parents teach you the Small Catechism?

I asked this question of a group of Lutheran women at a workshop at Lutherlyn earlier this fall.

Their answer was a loud laugh. Pastors teach the Catechism. A few people conceded that their parents might have taught them the Lord's Prayer, but not the meaning.

With the birth of his first son in June of 1526, Martin Luther became a family man. This turned his mind to pondering ways to teach children. He surveyed his community to see what would need to be done to teach the faith. The Small Catechism appeared in May 1529. In that first issue of the catechism he reported what he found: "Good God, what wretchedness I beheld! The common people, especially those who live in the country, have no knowledge whatsoever of Christian teaching, and unfortunately many pastors are quite incompetent and unfitted for teaching. Although the people are supposed to be Christian, are baptized, and receive the holy sacrament, they do not know the Lord's Prayer, The Creed, or the Ten Commandments"

The Small Catechism contains the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, the Lord's Prayer with explanations, teachings on Holy Baptism, the Sacrament of the Altar and instructions for personal prayer, The Morning Blessing, The Evening Blessing and The Table Blessing—basics of the Christian faith.

The Large Catechism was written for pastors to teach adults and heads of households and contains a more expanded version of the basics.
